15 PATRICK HERZ,) Case No. 3:07-cv-00289-BES-RAM
16 Plaintiff,)
17 v.) JOINT PRETRIAL ORDER
18 DYNAMAX CORPORATION,)
19 Defendant.)

20 Following pretrial proceedings in this cause,

21 IT IS ORDERED:

22 I. Nature of Action. This is an action for breach of warranty brought pursuant to
23 the Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act, 15 U.S.C. § 2301 et seq. against defendant Dynamax
24 Corporation (“Dynamax”), the manufacturer of a 2005 Grand Sport motor home that plaintiff
25 Patrick Herz purchased on November 1, 2004. Herz paid $216,740 for the motor home.

26 Dynamax provided plaintiff a written warranty on the motor home in effect for 3 years or 27 36,000 miles. By operation of law Dynamax also provided plaintiff an implied warranty on the 28 motor home.

29 Herz alleges that Dynamax was unable to conform the motor home to the express warranty

1 make it merchantable by repairing its defects. The defects in the motor home have been the subject
2 of repair by Dynamax authorized repair facilities, including Safari Stores in Reno, and Sweet's
3 Mobile RV Service. In addition, defendant Dynamax attempted repairs on the motor home at its
4 factory service center in Indiana from November 19, 2006, to December 15, 2006.

5 Herz alleges that the motor home continues to have unresolved defects that substantially
6 impair the value of the motor home. Dynamax denies the motor home has defects or that there are 7 defects that substantially impair the motor home.
8

9 Herz initially sought return of the purchase price and incidental damages in exchange for 10 clear title to the motor home. On February 12, 2009, the Court ruled that Herz could not revoke
11 acceptance of acceptance because plaintiff was not in privity with Dynamax. At the same time, the 12 Court stated that plaintiff's claim for damages based on an alleged breach of express or implied
13 warranty may go forward. Herz' damage claim is based on "the difference at the time and place of 14 acceptance between the value of the goods accepted and the value they would have had if they had 15 been as warranted" pursuant to NRS 104.2714 and incidental and consequential damages pursuant
16 to NRS 104.2715.
17

18 II. Statement of Jurisdiction. On February 12, 2009, this Court ruled that it has 19 jurisdiction since the amount in controversy exceeds $50,000.
20

21 III. Facts Admitted by the Parties. The following facts are admitted by the parties
22 and require no further proof:
23

- 24 A. Plaintiff Patrick Herz purchased the Dynamax Grand Sport motor home from 25 McMahon's RV, Irvine, California on November 1, 2004.
26 B. Herz paid $216,740 for the motor home.
27 C. Dynamax provided plaintiff a written warranty on the motor home in effect
28 for 3 years or 36,000 miles.
29

- 1 D. Dynamax is the manufacturer of the motor home. The express warranty
 2 provided by Dynamax does not cover the entire motor home, portions of 3 which are expressly warranted by other manufacturers.
- 4 E. Warranty repairs were made or attempted by Sweet's Mobile RV Service and 5 Safari Stores, Reno, Nevada after having been authorized to do so by
 6 Dynamax;
- 7 F. In November 2006, Dynamax arranged for transportation of the motor home
 8 to its factory service center in Elkhart, IN for warranty repairs. The motor
 9 home arrived at the service center on November 19, 2006, and remained there 10 26 days.
- 11 G. There were 2,519 miles on the odometer of the motor home at the time it was 12 delivered new to Herz.

13 IV. Facts Not Admitted but that Will not be Contested at Trial:

14 The parties agree that the repair history of the motor home may be summarized as 15 follows, but the parties agree this may not be a complete repair history:

Date In	Days	Owner Complaints/Dealer Comments
6/13/05 Sweet's Mobile RV Service		Genset won't start by T-stat, traced to no power to control
7/15/05 Sweet's Mobile RV Service		Electrical problems
9/20/05 Sweet's Mobile RV Service		Check slide for operation
10/2/06 RO 3618 Safari Stores, Reno, NV		Bedroom slide-out binds and trips breakers Refasten ... kitchen slide-out Work on bedroom slide-out
11/19/06 Dynamax factory service center	26 days	See list above

1 The parties agree that plaintiff gave Dynamax notice that the motor home had certain
2 alleged defects before this lawsuit was filed.

3 V. Contested Factual Issues to be Tried:

4 Plaintiff's Issues of Fact:

- 5 1. Whether defects in the motor home substantially impair its use or value;
6 2. Whether Dynamax was given a reasonable opportunity to repair the motor home;
7 3. Whether Dynamax breached its express, written warranty;
8 4. Whether Dynamax breached the implied warranty of merchantability;
9 5. Whether the Dynamax written warranty failed of its essential purpose;
10 6. Whether Herz has been damaged; and
11 7. The amount of Herz' damages.

12 Defendant's Issues of Fact:

- 13 8. Whether Plaintiff altered the Motor Home thereby causing the alleged defects or voiding
14 the warranties;
15 9. Whether the Motor Home was damaged while in the custody or control of Plaintiff
16 thereby causing the alleged defects or voiding the warranties;
17 10. Whether Plaintiff misused the Motor Home or used it in an unauthorized manner
18 causing the alleged defects or voiding the warranties;
19 11. Whether the alleged defects have been repaired or resolved and, for those alleged defects
20 not resolved, the costs to remedy or repair;
21 12. Whether Plaintiff provided Dynamax reasonable opportunity to make repairs to, remedy
22 the alleged defects, or cure the alleged breaches of warranty;
23 13. The cost to repair the unrepairs defects, if any, attributable to Dynamax;
24 14. The diminution in value of the Motor Home resulting from the unrepairs defects, if
25 any, attributable to Dynamax;
26 15. Whether Plaintiff failed to mitigate his damages.

27 ///

1 VI. Issues of Law to be Tried and Determined at Trial:

2 Plaintiff's Issues of Law:

- 3 1. Whether Dynamax provided plaintiff an implied warranty of merchantability by 4 operation of law.
- 5 2. The instructions concerning liability issues that are to be given to the jury.
- 6 3. The instructions concerning the measures of damages to be given to the jury.

7 Defendant's Issues of Law:

- 9 4. Whether the problems with the RV alleged by Plaintiff are actual defects;
- 10 5. The extent to which the express or implied warranties apply to the defects in the 11 Motor Home, if any are found, and thereby obligate Dynamax to be responsible for 12 repairs of those defects;
- 13 6. Whether Plaintiff's breach of warranty claims exceed the minimum $50,000
14 jurisdictional requirement;
- 15 7. That Plaintiff's damages, if any, are limited by the express warranty;
- 16 8. Whether the defects, if any are found, are covered by the warranty provided by 17 Dynamax and the extent of Dynamax's obligation to repair or pay for repairs;
- 18 9. Whether the defects, if any are found, are subject to the alleged warranties provided by 19 other manufacturers of portions of the Motor Home and not the responsibility of 20 Dynamax;
- 21 10. Whether Plaintiff provided Dynamax reasonable opportunity to make repairs to, remedy
22 the alleged defects, or cure the alleged breaches of warranty;
- 23 11. Whether damages found for Plaintiff, if any, shall be offset by Plaintiff's use of the 24 Motor Home and the value and benefit thereof; and
- 25 12. Whether Plaintiff is entitled to incidental and consequential damages.
